

APPEAL NO. 021679
FILED JULY 29, 2002

This appeal arises pursuant to the Texas Workers' Compensation Act, TEX. LAB. CODE ANN. § 401.001 et seq. (1989 Act). Although no date is indicated in the decision and order, the record reflects that a contested case hearing was held on May 21, 2002. The hearing officer resolved the disputed issue by determining that the appellant (claimant) is not entitled to supplemental income benefits (SIBs) for the third compensable quarter. On appeal, the claimant contends that this determination is "clearly wrong, manifestly unjust and goes against the great weight of the evidence presented." The respondent (carrier) urges affirmance.

DECISION

Affirmed.

Whether a claimant satisfied the good faith requirement for SIBs entitlement is a question of fact for the hearing officer to resolve. The hearing officer determined that the claimant did not satisfy this requirement by either showing that she had a total inability to work or that she made a good faith job search effort during the qualifying period in question. Section 410.165(a) provides that the hearing officer, as finder of fact, is the sole judge of the relevance and materiality of the evidence as well as of the weight and credibility that is to be given the evidence. It was for the hearing officer, as trier of fact, to resolve the inconsistencies and conflicts in the evidence. Garza v. Commercial Insurance Company of Newark, New Jersey, 508 S.W.2d 701 (Tex. Civ. App.-Amarillo 1974, no writ). The trier of fact may believe all, part, or none of the testimony of any witness. Aetna Insurance Company v. English, 204 S.W.2d 850 (Tex. Civ. App.-Fort Worth 1947, no writ). When reviewing a hearing officer's decision for factual sufficiency of the evidence, we should reverse such decision only if it is so contrary to the great weight and preponderance of the evidence as to be clearly wrong and unjust. Cain v. Bain, 709 S.W.2d 175, 176 (Tex. 1986); Pool v. Ford Motor Co., 715 S.W.2d 629, 635 (Tex. 1986). Applying this standard, we find no grounds to reverse the decision of the hearing officer.

The decision and order of the hearing officer are affirmed.
